SOME HEAVY BATTING DONE

The Game Abounded in Many Laughterful Incidents and Furnished the Spectators With Enough Enjoyment to Last For a Week—More Good Words For Mercer.

For several days past there has been a suppressed air of excitement among all of the barbers in the city, and to a man not acquainted with the cause it seemed as though a bomb was almost ready to burst. The cause of all this excitement was nothing more or less than a ball game which took place on the West End grounds yesterday afternoon, between the white and colored barbers.

The first inning started off very well for the white men, and they scored two runs, while their opponents got but one, and there were no accidents, except Jim Brown was hit in the eye while trying to keep a man from scoring.

In the second inning the white men took a decided spurt and knocked out home runs and three baggers at a fearful rate, while the dusky boys piled up errors, and succeeded in scoring 11 runs. The colored men got five in this inning.

In the third inning the white men got a goose egg, and after two men were out, dark town awakened to the fact that they must do something, and began to play ball in a style that would excite the envy of almost any amateur club in this section of the country. When they were retired they had piled up 18 runs.

The fourth inning was started and it began to look as though the white men would catch up; but Brown, the catcher of the colored men, got hit in the eye from a foul tip and they ran in a ringer named "Foggy" Miller, from Cadiz, and the onslaught was stopped, but not before 11 runs were scored. The white men here decided to strengthen, and secured a young man named Hanlon to catch for them, as Joe Gape had got tired and wanted to quit. Four runs were scored in this inning by the colored men and they were jubilant.

The fifth inning was started, but was soon stopped, as everybody wanted to see a couple of small boys who were fighting over by the fence. After the fight was finished the game was started again and the white people were again goose egged, while their colored brethren scored six runs.

In the sixth inning the white men were again shut out and the colored men registered one.

The seventh inning was started and as a last resource the white men tried to ring in Hugh McCurran, but were called down, and Joe Gape was again called to the front. They scored two runs in this inning, but the colored men scored eight, and as it was getting late in the afternoon the game was called. Following is a score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
White.....	2	11	0	11	0	0	2—26
Colored.....	1	5	18	4	6	1	8—43

Summary—Base hits—Whites, 38; Colored, 65. Errors—Whites, 25; Colored, 15.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Pete Lyons surprised even his most enthusiastic admirers by the way he slugged the ball yesterday, and he was without doubt the star of the game.

Fred Ferrer, in middle field, was a picture to look at, as he stopped everything with his feet or missed it altogether.

Good was robbed of a clean home run by Umpire Walter Buxton, who also called Brown out on first on a decision that he wouldn't be able to find in any rule book. The umpire was evidently as much at sea as were some of the players.

The strength of the colored men's team lies in the fact that they are all heavy hitters, and were able to slug the ball at will, and when on bases would run in a manner that would lead a person to believe that there was a hen roost in the vicinity somewhere.

The white men were not strengthened much by the addition of Hanlon, who seemed to have caught the fever, and dropped everything in sight.

Caton and Shenkel amused the crowd by indulging in a wrangling match as to who should do the pitching. Shenkel quitting after Vaughn had knocked a two bagger.

Caton surprised the people by a headlong slide into third base, which was started about the middle of the line. He was put out, however, by the star third baseman, Vaughn.

The end is not yet, at least so say the white barbers, for they are still of the opinion that they can defeat their colored brethren on the ball field, and will shortly issue a manifesto to that effect. The colored men merely smile when told this and say, "just wait until we put our good nine in and we'll show them what we can do."

A great deal of regret was expressed by the audience that Constable Bertele could not be present to umpire, and George Johnson was absent from his old position on the "fowl" line.

OTHER SPORTING NOTES.

Welsh, Twaddle and Albright will play with New Cumberland in their game against Toronto Saturday.

The Chronicle Telegraph of last night contains the following good words for Mercer:

"Mercer's physician predicted last winter that the pitcher would be in better health after his recovery from the smallpox, and Mercer's pitching seems to bear out the forecast of his physician."

"Mercer has beautiful, black, curly locks and a slow ball that is as curly as his hair."

"Mercer is a brainy twirler, and is improving in speed."

Bert Shay and Herman Feistel rode their bicycles to Wheeling today.

"Neddy" Hanlon's Tiffin team was defeated yesterday by a score of 7 to 8 by the Defiance club. The game was a 10-inning contest.

More Kind Words For America's Next President.

The pretensions of the anti-McKinley bosses in the face of fate recalls a story of the Hon. Adrian Constantine Anson. The captain had matched one of his young men against an "unknown" to run 100 yards for $50. When the unknown appeared at the track he was discovered to be a famous professional who held the record for the distance. "I can't run against that man," said Anson's protegee. "That's Kittleman." "Run anyhow," retorted the unabashed Anson, thinking of his hard-earned money. "Run anyhow. He may fall down."—Chicago Times Herald.

LADIES' AUXILIARY.

The Members Are Accomplishing Much Good.

In the hands of the Master, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., has been, and is accomplishing much good. Through their efforts they have aided materially the parent organization, raising snug sums of money, and in numerous ways have demonstrated the fact that they are workers—not idlers.

Lately, they have been giving receptions to the employees of the different potteries, and these receptions have proved to be very pleasant occasions. This idea will be kept up, in the hope that good will be accomplished. There is no charge made at these entertainments, the doors being thrown wide open to all male employees of the pottery in whose name the reception is given. A reception will be given to the workmen of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles' pottery on Friday night, May 8th. Other potteries will be taken up in due time.

WANT IT REMOVED.

A Fire Plug That is a Menace to Public Safety.

Teamsters are complaining about a fire plug that is erected at the bend above Walnut street on the Calcutta road. They say that it is impossible to see the plug at night, as the drive extends over the curb, and one unaccustomed to the road is liable to accident. The matter should be remedied by exposing the curb so that teamsters may know when they are on the road, or a light ordered erected at that point. Several accidents have been narrowly averted recently, and a sharp lookout has to be kept for the obstruction.

IT WAS AN INJUSTICE

To Assess Them Five Cents Every Pay

TO KEEP THE VAULT CLEAN

So Say the Employees of Mountford's Pottery—The Clay Hands Discharged and Other Employees Strike—A Statement From Both Sides.

There is some trouble at the Mountford & Co. pottery and all because the men objected to what they deemed an injustice to them.

The employees of the pottery called at the News Review office this morning, and made the following statement:

"For several years past it has been the custom of the firm to keep five cents out of each man's pay, which, in all, would amount to between three and four dollars, for the purpose of hiring a man to keep a vault cleaned. We have always objected to this, as we deemed it an injustice, and last week came to the conclusion that we wouldn't stand it any longer, and accordingly on Friday last a petition remonstrating against it was drawn up and sent into the office, the petition being signed by every male employe at the plant."

"Last Saturday night when we went for our pay the five cents was taken out as usual and we refused to accept the wages unless it was paid back. Upon the assurance of Messrs. Robinson and Massey, two members of the firm, that they would pay the amount back out of their own pockets, we accepted the money and went to work as usual on Monday morning. All went well, but John H. Mountford, the senior member of the firm, ordered the closet locked up, and started to erect a vault out over the river bank. Sanitary Policeman King notified him to stop this, but he kept on, and yesterday morning was called before the mayor and fined $6.00. This evidently angered him, for he came back to the plant and ordered George Robinson, the foreman of the clay workers, to discharge every clay hand on the place, meaning that 25 hands would be thrown out of employment, and at 15 minutes after 1 o'clock Robinson discharged us. As soon as the kilnhands heard of Mountford's action they decided to stay with the clay hands, as did practically all the male employes of the pottery, and today the plant is virtually idle."

John H. Mountford was seen this afternoon and said: "There is not much to tell. The men simply refused to pay five cents to a man every pay to have a vault cleaned out. Some two years ago the men agreed to give a man five cents a pay to keep the vault clean rather than have it dirty, and on last Friday I got a petition from them objecting to paying it, and on Saturday night when it was kept out of their wages they refused to accept them."

"The man had already done the work for the past two weeks and it would have had to come out of my own pocket if they didn't pay it. I should have received the petition two weeks sooner, if the men expected to get their full wages last Saturday night. I told them I would stop the assessment, but get another vault for them at the same time. This is the first time they ever objected to me about it. Of course there are some men here that were not employed on the plant at the time the agreement was made, but their place was to object when it was taken out of their first pay."

He was asked about the trouble with Sanitary Policeman King, but simply replied "that it had been settled."

When asked what the outcome of the trouble would be, he replied: "I will hire a whole new set of men, and will pay the old set of hands off tomorrow. I have several men working today who were not employed when the trouble came, and expect to get more right along. The old men simply struck for five cents. Yes, sir, I locked the closet up, but it is unlocked again."

TROUBLE AT THE BRIDGE.

There is trouble at the bridge. About a dozen of the employees engaged on the stone work of the river piers threw down their tools yesterday, quit work and went out on strike, demanding an increase in wages. The cause of the above action is easily apparent. Some of the workmen receive 15 cents an hour for their labor, while others are paid only 12 1/2 cents for doing the same kind of work.

Those who received the latter figure did not learn until recently that a higher rate was paid for the same class of labor that they were doing, hence they rebelled and quit work until they get the advance that is asked for. It is thought that the company will speedily accede to the men's terms, as any delay in work puts them in liability of forfeiting a bond of $50,000 for the completion of the bridge by October 15.

TRUSTEES MEET.

A Short Business Session Held Last Night.

The water work trustees met in monthly session last night and transacted routine business. No action was taken in regard to the institution of a municipal light plant, the question being deferred until a latter period. Superintendent Morley was instructed to put in a new four inch pipe opposite the power house. A private line that has been doing service at this point for a number of years has become old and worn out by use, therefore it was deemed wise to replace it with a new pipe. Another important matter considered was the action of the Diamond pump committee in running the machinery of the pump with water as motive power. This is a standing expense to the city, owing to the increased pressure of water required when the pump is in operation. The trustees decided that if the pump committee intend to use the water as a motive power continually, that they will be charged for it.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

President Hughes Met With the Stockholders at Akron.

President Al Hughes, of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, returned from Akron yesterday, where he went to investigate the strike in the pottery at that place. He says the trouble arose over a few trifling differences, and a misunderstanding that occurred between the employees and employer. However both sides were willing to come to terms, and harmony has been secured again. The president says that the stockholders claim that an injustice was done them by the reports that were first sent out and saying that a misrepresentation was made. They were courteous to the president, and were anxious to have all difficulties adjusted. The kilnhands have started to work, and the clay hands will resume on Monday. A few repairs are being made, and the outlook for a prosperous year is indicated in the fact that orders are coming in faster than they can be filled. The weekly output of ware previous to the trouble was five kilns a week, with no stock ahead.

A SMALL FIRE.

The Residence of Mrs. Fair Discovered to be Ablaze.

This morning, shortly after 7 o'clock, fire was discovered in the residence of Mrs. Fair, of Grant street, and an alarm was at once turned in. The department responded, and made a quick run up Lincoln avenue. Volumes of smoke were rolling from all the windows of the building, and it looked as though Grant street was to be the scene of a big conflagration. The backeys were at once brought into service, and in a short time the flames were extinguished. There are two theories as to the origin of the fire, which started in a bedroom over the kitchen. One is that the occupant of the room on leaving for breakfast trapped on a match, which ignited some clothing. The most plausible theory, however, is a defective flue, as the mantel and floor near the fireplace are badly burned. A trunk and a basket of clothes were ignited, causing the dense smoke. The loss will amount to about $25.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Elected Officers for the ensuing Year Last Night.

A large number of the members of the Epworth league, of the First M. E. church, were present at the meeting which took place last night in the lecture room of the church. The meeting was called for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year, and after one of the most spirited, but friendly contests, the following officers were elected: President, Henry Ashbaugh; first vice president, Mrs. Ira Hawkins; second vice president, O'Brien; third vice president, A. W. Ferran; fourth vice president, Miss Jessie Kent; secretary, Charles Boyce; treasurer, Charles Albright.

Did Not Meet.

A committee of the board of education were to have met in conference with Solicitor Grosshans last night to talk over matters relating to the issuance of bonds, but it was decided to leave the question over until another evening.

THE NEW YORK TRADE

Business Very Dull in Crockery and Glassware.

BYCICLES OCCUPY ATTENTION

Of All the Dealers, and Household Necessities are Neglected—Travelers Report Business Better on the Coast Than Inland—Restoration of the Tariff Needed

According to a New York correspondent of a glass and crockery journal, there is no use disguising the fact that the depression that is common in the world of commerce at this time is finding its reflection in the crockery and glass trades to the full. Business is dull, and he is a man of strong foresight who will undertake to say when anything else can be said of it. There is no stir in the trade to chronicle. There are a few buyers in New York, and the disposition to do business is not very keen. Still the "hope that springs eternal in the human breast" serves to furnish the expectation of better things upon which many people are banking these times, to help them strike a balance upon the right side of the ledger.

Some idea of how things are moving in the district may be gathered from the utterance of one importer, who affirms that the volume of business for the month of April was fully 33 per cent less than the amount of the transaction of the corresponding period of last year. This depreciation is attributed to no less cause than the bicycle craze. People, young and old, grave and gay, seem to have wheeled on the brain, and every trader, no matter what his line of business may be, is selling bicycles. You can find them everywhere, from the large department stores to the corner grocery. The effect on business outside the necessities of life is also marked, for money which would ordinarily be expended on furnishings, etc., is now going into the cost of a wheel.

The manufacturers of white granite ware are in despair. There has been a still further slump in prices, which have been run down to a point at which they are no longer discernible. The understanding that heretofore existed has been totally ignored and the race is to the swift—in cutting prices. Where it is all going to end, there are many in the trade would ardently like to know.

H. C. Sedam, of the Wellsville Pottery company, is again at the Astor House, after a tour through the west. He says that he would have wished to find things more flourishing in the sections he passed through and that there are considerable expectations of a bettering when the political skies shall have cleared after the conventions of the two great parties.

Twenty-two china and glass salesmen chanced to meet in Philadelphia last week and fell to exchanging ideas; held a sort of informal pow-wow, in fact. The net result of their journeyings was that Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore had yielded better results than the western cities had, which would go to show that business is moving more actively along the seaboard than inland.

A CLOSE CALL.

The Engine Stopped in Time to Prevent an Accident.

Joseph McKinnon, an East End expressman, had an experience this morning that he does not care to repeat in a hurry. He was driving across the railroad crossing at the foot of College street and had failed to notice that the 8:10 train eastward bound was approaching until the vehicle was on the track. Apprehending his dangerous position he commenced to whip the horse to drive ahead, but the wheels of the wagon in some manner became caught in the track and refused to move.

The locomotive was now very near, and the horse, becoming frightened, commenced to rear and plunge in a wild manner. The engineer took in the situation at a glance and made a remarkably quick stop, bringing the engine to a standstill within but three feet of the expressman, who was very nervous and shuddered at the thought of what might have resulted but for the quick work of the engineer.

As soon as the kilnhands heard of Mountford's action they decided to stay with the clay hands, as did practically all the male employes of the pottery, and today the plant is virtually idle."

John H. Mountford was seen this afternoon and said: "There is not much to tell. The men simply refused to pay five cents to a man every pay to have a vault cleaned out. Some two years ago the men agreed to give a man five cents a pay to keep the vault clean rather than have it dirty, and on last Friday I got a petition from them objecting to paying it, and on Saturday night when it was kept out of their wages they refused to accept them."

"The man had already done the work for the past two weeks and it would have had to come out of my own pocket if they didn't pay it. I should have received the petition two weeks sooner, if the men expected to get their full wages last Saturday night. I told them I would stop the assessment, but get another vault for them at the same time. This is the first time they ever objected to me about it. Of course there are some men here that were not employed on the plant at the time the agreement was made, but their place was to object when it was taken out of their first pay."

He was asked about the trouble with Sanitary Policeman King, but simply replied "that it had been settled."

When asked what the outcome of the trouble would be, he replied: "I will hire a whole new set of men, and will pay the old set of hands off tomorrow. I have several men working today who were not employed when the trouble came, and expect to get more right along. The old men simply struck for five cents. Yes, sir, I locked the closet up, but it is unlocked again."

TROUBLE AT THE BRIDGE.

There is trouble at the bridge. About a dozen of the employees engaged on the stone work of the river piers threw down their tools yesterday, quit work and went out on strike, demanding an increase in wages. The cause of the above action is easily apparent. Some of the workmen receive 15 cents an hour for their labor, while others are paid only 12 1/2 cents for doing the same kind of work.

Those who received the latter figure did not learn until recently that a higher rate was paid for the same class of labor that they were doing, hence they rebelled and quit work until they get the advance that is asked for. It is thought that the company will speedily accede to the men's terms, as any delay in work puts them in liability of forfeiting a bond of $50,000 for the completion of the bridge by October 15.

TRUSTEES MEET.

A Short Business Session Held Last Night.

The water work trustees met in monthly session last night and transacted routine business. No action was taken in regard to the institution of a municipal light plant, the question being deferred until a latter period. Superintendent Morley was instructed to put in a new four inch pipe opposite the power house. A private line that has been doing service at this point for a number of years has become old and worn out by use, therefore it was deemed wise to replace it with a new pipe. Another important matter considered was the action of the Diamond pump committee in running the machinery of the pump with water as motive power. This is a standing expense to the city, owing to the increased pressure of water required when the pump is in operation. The trustees decided that if the pump committee intend to use the water as a motive power continually, that they will be charged for it.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

President Hughes Met With the Stockholders at Akron.

President Al Hughes, of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, returned from Akron yesterday, where he went to investigate the strike in the pottery at that place. He says the trouble arose over a few trifling differences, and a misunderstanding that occurred between the employes and employer. However both sides were willing to come to terms, and harmony has been secured again. The president says that the stockholders claim that an injustice was done them by the reports that were first sent out and saying that a misrepresentation was made. They were courteous to the president, and were anxious to have all difficulties adjusted. The kilnhands have started to work, and the clay hands will resume on Monday. A few repairs are being made, and the outlook for a prosperous year is indicated in the fact that orders are coming in faster than they can be filled. The weekly output of ware previous to the trouble was five kilns a week, with no stock ahead.

A SMALL FIRE.

The Residence of Mrs. Fair Discovered to Be Ablaze.

This morning, shortly after 7 o'clock, fire was discovered in the residence of Mrs. Fair, of Grant street, and an alarm was at once turned in. The department responded, and made a quick run up Lincoln avenue. Volumes of smoke were rolling from all the windows of the building, and it looked as though Grant street was to be the scene of a big conflagration. The Hancock were at once brought into service, and in a short time the flames were extinguished. There are two theories as to the origin of the fire, which started in a bedroom over the kitchen. One is that the occupant of the room on leaving for breakfast tramped on a match, which ignited some clothing. The most plausible theory, however, is a defective flue, as the mantel and floor near the fireplace are badly burned. A trunk and a basket of clothes were ignited, causing the dense smoke. The loss will amount to about $25.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Elected Officers for the Ensuing Year Last Night.

A large number of the members of the Epworth league, of the First M. E. church, were present at the meeting which took place last night in the lecture room of the church. The meeting was called for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year, and after one of the most spirited, but friendly contests, the following officers were elected: President, Henry Ashbaugh; first vice president, Mrs. Ira Hawkins; second vice president, O'Brien; third vice president, A. W. Ferran; fourth vice president, Miss Jessie Kent; secretary, Charles Boyce; treasurer, Charles Albright.

Did Not Meet.

A committee of the board of education were to have met in conference with Solicitor Grosshans last night to talk over matters relating to the issuance of bonds, but it was decided to leave the question over until another evening.

THE NEW YORK TRADE

Business Very Dull in Crockery and Glassware.

BYCICLES OCCUPY ATTENTION

Of All the Dealers, and Household Necessities are Neglected—Travelers Report Business Better on the Coast Than Inland—Restoration of the Tariff Needed

According to a New York correspondent of a glass and crockery journal, there is no use disguising the fact that the depression that is common in the world of commerce at this time is finding its reflection in the crockery and glass trades to the full. Business is dull, and he is a man of strong foresight who will undertake to say when anything else can be said of it. There is no stir in the trade to chronicle. There are a few buyers in New York, and the disposition to do business is not very keen. Still the "hope that springs eternal in the human breast" serves to furnish the expectation of better things upon which many people are banking these times, to help them strike a balance upon the right side of the ledger.

Some idea of how things are moving in the district may be gathered from the utterance of one importer, who affirms that the volume of business for the month of April was fully 33 per cent less than the amount of the transaction of the corresponding period of last year. This depreciation is attributed to no less cause than the bicycle craze. People, young and old, grave and gay, seem to have wheeled on the brain, and every trader, no matter what his line of business may be, is selling bicycles. You can find them everywhere, from the large department stores to the corner grocery. The effect on business outside the necessities of life is also marked, for money which would ordinarily be expended on furnishings, etc., is now going into the cost of a wheel.

The manufacturers of white granite ware are in despair. There has been a still further slump in prices, which have been run down to a point at which they are no longer discernible. The understanding that heretofore existed has been totally ignored and the race is to the swiftest—in cutting prices. Where it is all going to end, there are many in the trade would ardently like to know.

H. C. Sedam, of the Wellsville Pottery company, is again at the Astor House, after a tour through the west. He says that he would have wished to find things more flourishing in the sections he passed through and that there are considerable expectations of a bettering when the political skies shall have cleared after the conventions of the two great parties.

Twenty-two china and glass salesmen chanced to meet in Philadelphia last week and fell to exchanging ideas; held a sort of informal pow-wow, in fact. The net result of their journeyings was that Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore had yielded better results than the western cities had, which would go to show that business is moving more actively along the seaboard than inland.

A CLOSE CALL.

The Engine Stopped in Time to Prevent an Accident.

Joseph McKinnon, an East End expressman, had an experience this morning that he does not care to repeat in a hurry. He was driving across the railroad crossing at the foot of College street and had failed to notice that the 8:10 train eastward bound was approaching until the vehicle was on the track. Apprehending his dangerous position he commenced to whip the horse to drive ahead, but the wheels of the wagon in some manner became caught in the track and refused to move.

The locomotive was now very near, and the horse, becoming frightened, commenced to rear and plunge in a wild manner. The engineer took in the situation at a glance and made a remarkably quick stop, bringing the engine to a standstill within but three feet of the expressman, who was very nervous and shuddered at the thought of what might have resulted but for the quick work of the engineer.

Lost a Necklace.

Mrs. R. E. Dittenhaver lost a gold necklace with a pendant attached, somewhere on Fifth street, last evening. The necklace is highly prized by the lady, as it was a present.

To Hold a Picnic.

The Elks are arranging to hold a picnic this summer. It has not yet been decided what grounds will be secured for the event.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MAY 8

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

CLEANLINESS.

Under the knowledge that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," every one should be glad to possess the characteristic. That which is a blessing for the individual is also a blessing to the community at large. Street Commissioner Finley is evidently of this opinion, as he is doing everything possible, with the force at his command, to place the city in a cleanly condition. But he should be assisted better than he is by individual property holders and residents, many of whom seem to think that the streets and alleys are the proper place to throw off of every description, trusting to the street commissioner and his force to cart the same away in due time. Offenders of this class will do well to avoid such actions in the future, as it is the intention to indict, under the head of "committing a nuisance," and punish to the limit. There are places in the city where we could mention, from personal observation, had indeed in this direction, and they will be reported to the officials if the uncleanness is persisted in.

AN AWFUL NUISANCE.

We have reference to the scavenger cart being used in this city of East Liverpool, those who have control of the same commencing their work of cleaning cess pools at an early hour in the night, much to the annoyance and discomfort of parties going home from church and from business. The city ordinances do not specify the hour at which the work shall commence, and Health Officer Ogden this morning informed the writer that the board of health has designated 10 o'clock. This must mean 10 o'clock eastern time, as the men engaged in this service was busily at work at a little after 10 last night. It is understood that those who have the contract for night soiling assert that they cannot accomplish their work if they are compelled to start at a later hour. Such a statement must be wrong, as in other cities, where much more work of this class is done, they do not commence operations until after the hour of midnight. Our board of health will confer a great favor upon our residents if they change their order in this particular, and not allow night soiling to be done until 12 o'clock or later.

MCKINLEY.

We rise to remark that Mac. is the man, rounded out, full and free, on the very best plan; soldier, statesman, the workingman's choice, who will make the hearts of the toilers rejoice; he backs up your home, your desirability and health, driving dull care away, and calling in mirth; makes the iron-workers happy, while the workers in tin, are convinced that free trade is the essence of sin; for the mills will be working, by night and by day, when Mac. holds control and all earn full pay; the farmer will hail his election with glee, and will feel just as jolly as a farmer can be, for he knoweth full well, as he droppeth to sleep, that the good time hath come when it pays to raise sheep, and he changeth a song, full of joy, glee and pride, "McKinley's all wool, thirty-six inches wide." But think of the joy in our own hustling town, which hath won, through ceramics, a world-wide renown; with the tariff restored on the goods which we make, we shall cause an upheaval—a foreign earthquake; and this pottery center shall go wild with joy, and our toilers be happy, without thought of alloy; for good wages shall rule, with work all the year—and these are the signs, as it now doth appear, for the clamor is sounding, from mills and from steeples, "McKinley's the choice of the American people."

The German heath, according to the popular legend of that country, was dyed red by the blood of unbelievers shed during Charlemagne's violent efforts to convert the whole German nation at once.

FOR BOYS

We are doing wonders in point of style and worth. We commence every-day suits at

$1.23

Nothing in it for us, but we refuse to deviate from our principle to give you only good clothing. If we clothe your boys they'll be a credit to you and us.

There are Three Factors

which play an important part in our MEN'S SUIT DEPARTMENT.

COMELINESS, COMFORT AND CREDIBILITY.

When the seams rip, and the buttons give, and the air echoes like a seashore shell, with words that delicacy prevents us from repeating, you'll realize, perhaps, how much wiser it would be to buy your clothing here. Ask to see our nobby spring suits we sell at $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12. The tailor will ask double the price.

JOSEPH BROS.

ATTACKING JACKSON'S CHARACTER.

Bad Negro Women Introduced as Witnesses Against Him.

NEWPORT, Ky., May 8.—Seven witnesses have been used to strengthen the proof that George H. Jackson identified Walling in the Hamilton county jail and two were used to corroborate the story of his wonderful midnight drive with the murderers and their victim. All other evidence tended to break down the character of Scott Jackson, the prisoner. Three negro prostitutes were brought to court from Cincinnati, one of whom identified Jackson, and before the court could forbid she blurted out that Jackson had been acquainted with her since the 1st of November.

Will Wood was brought out by the commonwealth to rebut some of Scott Jackson's testimony, and this gave the defense opportunity to get in the affidavits of Ed Hunt and Homer Newhouse of Green Castle as to Wood's boast of his illicit intimacy with Pearl Bryan. By a false step the defense opened the door for the commonwealth to restore evidence by Chief Deitsch and Mayor Caldwell of damaging admissions of Scott Jackson which were ruled out early in the trial.

DECLARED FOR FREE SILVER.

Tennessee Democrats Selected Delegates and Nominated Taylor For Governor.

NASHVILLE, May 8.—The largest Democratic state convention ever held in Tennessee has met and adjourned. It was a free silver convention from start to finish. Fully 3,500 delegates and visitors were in town. A vote on contested delegations showed that the free silver men proposed to grant no quarter to the handful of sound money delegates.

Senators Isham G. Harris and W. B. Bate, E. W. Carmack, Memphis, and T. M. McConnell, Chattanooga, were chosen delegates from the state-at-large to Chicago. The district delegates chosen today were accepted by the convention. The platform contains a strong free silver plank. Ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor was nominated for governor by acclamation.

MICHIGAN FOR MCKINLEY.

State Convention Instructed For Him, Fight Over Money Plank.

DETROIT, May 8.—An animated fight over the money question was the most striking feature of the Michigan Republican convention. It resulted in squelching both the gold plank offered by the majority and the silver plank submitted by the minority of the resolutions committee and the substitution therefore of the money plank of the Minneapolis platform of '92. McKinley was endorsed most unequivocally and the delegates were strongly instructed in his favor. Four delegates-at-large were elected as follows: General R. A. Alger, Thomas J. O'Brien, John Duncan and Mark S. Brewer.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew, who happened to be in the city, made a speech and was received with enthusiasm.

Three Shot by a Robber.

CHICAGO, May 8.—While chasing a robber from his store Thomas J. Marshall of 278-82 West Madison street, was shot twice and died. The robber escaped after firing several shots to intimidate the people in the street. He wounded Alexander Beggs, shot in the left leg, and Katie Hyner, shot through both knees. The latter may die.

The Minneapolis Going to Russia.

SOUTHAMPTON, May 8.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis, on her way from the Mediterranean to Cronstadt, where she will represent the United States navy upon the occasion of the czar's coronation fetes, has sailed for Cronstadt.

NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.

The Old Officers Except One Re-Elected. Papers Read.

BALTIMORE, May 8.—The National Municipal League has re-elected all of its officers for another term, except L. E. Holden of Cleveland, fourth vice president, for whom Prof. Edmund J. James of Chicago university was substituted, and Louis D. Brandeis of Boston, who was replaced as executive committeeman by Mayor George W. Ochs of Chattanooga. The names of Judge E. J. Blandin of Cleveland, D. J. Newman of Washington were added to the executive committee.

Charles Richardson of Philadelphia read a paper on "Municipal Ownership of Street Railways." A paper on "Public Control of Franchises," by Mayor Hazen S. Pingree of Detroit, was read. "The Relation of a Municipality to Quasi-Public Corporations Enjoying Municipal Franchises," by William Salter of Philadelphia, and another on "The Municipal Condition of Pittsburgh," by G. W. Guthrie, were read.

Part of the session was devoted to papers relating to the municipal condition of the southern cities. The session closed with a rather sensational address by Colonel Arthur D. Asher of Macon, Ga., which was received with enthusiastic approval by the conference.

GAS GENERATOR EXPLODED.

The Cause of the Cincinnati Disaster. Bodies Recovered.

CINCINNATI, May 8.—The workmen have continued their efforts with relays at the scene of the collapsed buildings on Walnut street. The gasoline engine and tank were found undamaged after the body of John Beers had been taken out. The explosion was evidently not due to the engine or its tank as previously announced. Evidence before the coroner shows that Engineer Beers secured candles with which to examine the engine. When he went into the cellar with a lighted candle the gas generator exploded. The generator was found in pieces.

The bodies of William Lowheide, barkeeper for Drach, C. F. Andress, president of the Andress-Meara Wall-paper company, and Mamie Kennedy, who lived with the Feys, have been recovered, the latter in a horrible condition. Eleven bodies have been recovered.

BANDITS RANG A GONG.

It Put a Banker and Posse on to Their Raid.

A Bank They Had Tried to Rob In a Little Illinois Town—One Robber Fell With Nineteen Shot In Him—The Others Escaped.

LACON, Ill., May 8.—The little town of Washburn, Woodford county, has been the scene of a raid by bank robbers, and as a result one of the desperadoes is lying in the county jail at Metamora severely shot in the neck and back. The cracksmen entered the town from the south, stealing a team and carriage of Arthur Hoover and tying it up on the southwest outskirts of the town.

The private banking house of Ireland & Son was entered by a back window, and the cracksmen at once began work to open the vault, but the moment they got inside the building the burglar alarm started a gong ringing in the house of the junior member of the firm, Charles, and he armed himself immediately and started out to raise a posse. He gathered a dozen men and surrounded the bank in time to hear the first explosion the robbers made on the vault door.

The explosion blew out the tumbler to the lock only, and while the men were making ready for another blast the posse made a noise and the three men dashed out the back door to be met by a volley of shot and bullets. They stood the first crowd off with a volley from their revolvers, but as they turned the corner of the bank another squad fired into them and one robber fell with 19 large shot in his back and neck. The other two men got away, although the trail of blood showed that one of them was wounded. The captured robber says his name is Bill Wilson. Further than this he will not speak.

TO CONSIDER THE CONTESTS.

Republican Chairman Carter Calls a National Committee Meeting.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Senator Carter, chairman of the Republican national committee, has given out the following:

The members of the Republican national committee are requested to meet at the Southern hotel in the city of St. Louis, on Wednesday, the 10th of June, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of preparing the temporary roll of membership and designating temporary officers for the convention and for the transaction of such other business as may require the action of the committee. It appearing probable that an unusual number of contested cases will be presented to the committee for consideration in connection with the preparation of the temporary roll, it is deemed advisable to call special attention to the following clause in the call for the convention:

"All notices of contests must be filed with the secretary of the national committee, in writing, accompanied by printed statements of the grounds of the contest, which will be made public. Preference in the order of hearing and determining contests will be given by the committee in accordance with the dates of filing such notices and statements with the secretary."

Prior to June 1 communications should be addressed to Secretary J. H. Manley in care of the Arlington hotel, Washington, and thereafter in care of the Southern hotel, St. Louis.

HOLMES' DEATH STATEMENT.

He Declared His Innocence of Many Crimes—Died Bravely.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—One striking feature of Holmes' execution was the man's superb nerve to the last. Before his last prayer with the priests on the scaffold, previous to the death drop, he made this statement without a tremor: "Gentlemen, I have very few words to say. In fact, I would make no remarks at this time, except that by not speaking I would appear to acquiesce in my execution. I only wish to say that the extent of my wrongdoing in taking human life consisted in the death of two women, they having died at my hands as the result of criminal operations. I wish to state here, so there can be no chance of misunderstanding, that I am not guilty of taking the lives of any of the Pitzel family—the three children and Benjamin, the father, of whose death I was convicted and for which I am today to be hanged. That is all I have to say."

American Medical Association.

ATLANTA, May 8.—A fight is being made on Secretary Atkinson of the American Medical association in favor of a younger man. The committee on nominations recommended Philadelphia as the next place of meeting, the time to be the first Tuesday in June. The recommendation was adopted.

Important Suit Compromised.

FOWLDER, Ind., May 8.—The suit of Wilson vs. Gossage, brought in Illinois and involving $2,000,000 worth of real estate in Indiana and Illinois and the legitimacy of three children, has been compromised here.

Legally Shot to Death.

ANTLEYS, I. T., May 8.—Charles Homes, a full-blood Choctaw, has been legally shot at the Pushmataha court grounds, 30 miles west of here, for the murder of Charles Kiotubby, his stepson-in-law.

A Riding School Burned.

HEIDELBERG, May 8.—The University Riding school has been burned and several persons were suffocated and several others had narrow escapes. Twenty-seven horses perished.

No Money For Torrens Law.

COLUMBUS, May 8.—State Auditor Guilbert says the new Torrens law requires the secretary of state, the auditor of state and the attorney general to prepare a great number of forms and blanks to set the law in operation. To do so properly they ought to go where it is in operation. This will cost a great deal of money, and not a cent was appropriated for it. Unless the state officers upon whom the work is placed go down into their own pockets nothing will be done under the law.

Only One American Among Them.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The state department has been authentically informed that while none of the persons captured on board the Competitor were killed during the fight that ensued between the Spanish steam launch and the schooner, and while many more are supposed to have escaped, only one of the persons captured is an American citizen and he has refused thus far to give him name.

A Negro Suspect Arrested.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The police now believe they have the man who so brutally murdered the 18-year-old girl Elsie Kreglo here last Monday afternoon. The negro arrested at Harper's Ferry attempted to drown himself to avoid apprehension as he was brought to this city.

GEYER NOT GUILTY.

The Ex-State Senator Cleared of Bribery at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, May 8.—The jury in the case of Ohio vs. ex-State Senator John L. Geyer of Paulding, indicted for alleged solicitation of bribes, has returned a verdict of not guilty.

Ex-Senator Geyer, in his own behalf, told the history of the trust bill. Geyer gave a different version of the bribery talk from that given by Messrs. Burdell and Sharp. He said that Mr. Burdell remarked, "your senators are funny people. Do you suppose they want money?" Geyer replied, "I don't know what they want, but I have sometimes suspected that some members have improper motives."

Mr. Burdell said, "we'll not give a cent." Geyer then remarked, "I am glad you take that stand, for if you used money I should vote against your bill." Burdell remarked, "I guess we'll drop the bill." Here, ex-Senator Geyer declared that he had never, either directly or indirectly, solicited money for himself or for any other person or purpose.

To Entertain Knights of St. John.

DAYTON, O., May 8.—The committee having in charge the preparations for the eighteenth annual convention of the Knights of St. John, which will be held in this city from June 24 to 29 inclusive, is hard at work. About 600 tents will be pitched on the fairgrounds for the accommodation of the knights, and the camp will be named Camp West, in honor of Major General West, the supreme commander. The wives, mothers and sisters of the visiting knights will be entertained by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

A HOT COLLOQUY.

Ludlow and Doolittle Had It at the Nicaragua Canal Hearing.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—There has been a hot colloquy in the Nicaragua canal hearing. Colonel Ludlow and Representative Doolittle exchanged words, in which Colonel Ludlow declared he represented the government and did not care to have Mr. Doolittle take up his time while trying to impeach his (Ludlow's) testimony.

Mr. Doolittle responded that he was a member of the committee and declared that Colonel Ludlow should not "trample over them with all his topheaviness."

The conversation continued until other members protested, and the chairman called the men to order.

He Gave Her Away.

As everybody knows, Richard Wagner, the great composer, married the devoted wife of Hans von Bulow. The story goes that the latter one day came to Wagner, for whom he had the greatest possible admiration, and said: "Master, I wish to make you a little present. I have noticed your preference for my wife. Take her. She is yours. I am proud to think that I have something that you will consider worthy of acceptance."

And so a divorce was procured and the marriage took place. Later, when Von Bulow was in this country, he laughingly said to a well known woman of this city, "You know, Wagner married my widow."—New York Journal.

Cause For Shame.

Old Fivers—Look here. To come right down to the solid truth, aren't you just a little ashamed of your old daddy? Honest, now.

Young Fivers—Why, guv'nor, I can't say ashamed exactly, but you know you are not always in good fawn, you know.

Old Fivers—Well, I don't blame you for being ashamed of me. Every time I look at you and think what a job I made of your bringing up, I am ashamed of myself.—London Fun.

His Blunder.

"I wish you would find out how I have offended Miss Makeup."
"What did you say to her?"
"I wanted to compliment her on her fine appearance and merely asked her if she had all her warpaint on, and she hasn't looked at me since."—Detroit Free Press.

Altogether Different.

"I don't know how I'm going to make out," said the agricultural statesman who had been retired. "I've got to depend on the old farm for a living now, and I'm blest if I feel any certainty about making it pay."

"But you used to make your constituents very proud of you by showing off what you knew about farming," said his wife encouragingly.

"I know it, Maria. But don't forget this—farming for votes and farming for crops are two mighty different things."—Washington Star.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

CLEANLINESS.
Under the knowledge that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," every one should be glad to possess the characteristic. That which is a blessing for the individual is also a blessing to the community at large. Street Commissioner Finley is evidently of this opinion, as he is doing everything possible, with the force at his command, to place the city in a cleanly condition. But he should be assisted better than he is by individual property holders and residents, many of whom seem to think that the streets and alleys are the proper place to throw off of every description, trusting to the street commissioner and his force to cart the same away in due time. Offenders of this class will do well to avoid such actions in the future, as it is the intention to indict, under the head of "committing a nuisance," and punish to the limit. There are places in the city where we could mention, from personal observation, had indeed in this direction, and they will be reported to the officials if the uncleanness is persisted in.

AN AWFUL NUISANCE.
We have reference to the scavenger cart being used in this city of East Liverpool, those who have control of the same commencing their work of cleaning cess pools at an early hour in the night, much to the annoyance and discomfort of parties going home from church and from business. The city ordinances do not specify the hour at which the work shall commence, and Health Officer Ogden this morning informed the writer that the board of health has designated 10 o'clock. This must mean 10 o'clock eastern time, as the men engaged in this service was busily at work at a little after 10 last night. It is understood that those who have the contract for night soiling assert that they cannot accomplish their work if they are compelled to start at a later hour. Such a statement must be wrong, as in other cities, where much more work of this class is done, they do not commence operations until after the hour of midnight. Our board of health will confer a great favor upon our residents if they change their order in this particular, and not allow night soiling to be done until 12 o'clock or later.

MCKINLEY.
We rise to remark that Mac. is the man, rounded out, full and free, on the very best plan; soldier, statesman, the workingman's choice, who will make the hearts of the toilers rejoice; he backs up your home, your fireside and hearth, driving dull care away, and calling in mirth; makes the iron-workers happy, while the workers in tin, are convinced that free trade is the essence of sin; for the mills will be working, by night and by day, when Mac. holds control and all earn full pay; the farmer will hail his election with glee, and will feel just as jolly as a farmer can be, for he knoweth full well, as he droppeth to sleep, that the good time hath come when it pays to raise sheep, and he changeth a song, full of joy, glee and pride, "McKinley's all wool, thirty-six inches wide." But think of the joy in our own bustling town, which hath won, through ceramics, a world-wide renown; with the tariff restored on the goods which we make, we shall cause an upheaval—a foreign earthquake; and this pottery center shall go wild with joy, and our toilers be happy, without thought of alloy; for good wages shall rule, with work all the year—and these are the signs, as it now doth appear, for the clamor is sounding, from mills and from steeples, "McKinley's the choice of the American people."

The German heath, according to the popular legend of that country, was dyed red by the blood of unbelievers shed during Charlemagne's violent efforts to convert the whole German nation at once.

FOR BOYS
We are doing wonders in point of style and worth. We commence every-day suits at $1.23
Nothing in it for us, but we refuse to deviate from our principle to give you only good clothing. If we clothe your boys they'll be a credit to you and us.

There are Three Factors
which play an important part in our MEN'S SUIT DEPARTMENT.
COMELINESS, COMFORT AND CREDIBILITY.
When the seams rip, and the buttons give, and the air echoes like a seashore shell, with words that delicacy prevents us from repeating, you'll realize, perhaps, how much wiser it would be to buy your clothing here. Ask to see our nobby spring suits we sell at $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12. The tailor will ask double the price.

JOSEPH BROS.

ATTACKING JACKSON'S CHARACTER.

Bad Negro Women Introduced as Witnesses Against Him.

NEWPORT, Ky., May 8.—Seven witnesses have been used to strengthen the proof that George H. Jackson identified Walling in the Hamilton county jail and two were used to corroborate the story of his wonderful midnight drive with the murderers and their victim. All other evidence tended to break down the character of Scott Jackson, the prisoner. Three negro prostitutes were brought to court from Cincinnati, one of whom identified Jackson, and before the court could forbid she blurted out that Jackson had been acquainted with her since the last of November. Will Wood was brought out by the commonwealth to rebut some of Scott Jackson's testimony, and this gave the defense opportunity to get in the affidavits of Ed Hunt and Homer Newhouse of Green Castle as to Wood's boast of his illicit intimacy with Pearl Bryan. "By a false step the defense opened the door for the commonwealth to restore evidence by Chief Deitch and Mayor Caldwell of damaging admissions of Scott Jackson which were ruled out early in the trial."

DECLARED FOR FREE SILVER.

Tennessee Democrats Selected Delegates and Nominated Taylor For Governor.

NASHVILLE, May 8.—The largest Democratic state convention ever held in Tennessee has met and adjourned. It was a free silver convention from start to finish. Fully 8,500 delegates and visitors were in town. A vote on contested delegations showed that the free silver men proposed to grant no quarter to the handful of sound money delegates. Senators Isham G. Harris and W. B. Bate, E. W. Carmack, Memphis, and T. M. McConnell, Chattanooga, were chosen delegates from the state-at-large to Chicago. The district delegates chosen today were accepted by the convention. The platform contains a strong free silver plank. Ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor was nominated for governor by acclamation.

MICHIGAN FOR MCKINLEY.

State Convention Instructed For Him. Fight Over Money Plank.

DETROIT, May 8.—An animated fight over the money question was the most striking feature of the Michigan Republican convention. It resulted in squelching both the gold plank offered by the majority and the silver plank submitted by the minority of the resolutions committee and the substitution therefore of the money plank of the Minneapolis platform of '92. McKinley was endorsed most unequivocally and the delegates were strongly instructed in his favor. Four delegates-at-large were elected as follows: General R. A. Alger, Thomas J. O'Brien, John Duncan and Mark S. Brewer. Dr. Chauncey M. Depew, who happened to be in the city, made a speech and was received with enthusiasm.

Three Shot by a Robber.

CHICAGO, May 8.—While chasing a robber from his store Thomas J. Marshall of 278-82 West Madison street, was shot twice and died. The robber escaped after firing several shots to intimidate the people in the street. He wounded Alexander Beggs, shot in the left leg, and Katie Hynes, shot through both knees. The latter may die.

The Minneapolis Going to Russia. SOUTHAMPTON, May 8.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis, on her way from the Mediterranean to Cronstadt, where she will represent the United States navy upon the occasion of the czar's coronation fetes, has sailed for Cronstadt.

NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.

The Old Officers Except One Re-Elected. Papers Read.

BALTIMORE, May 8.—The National Municipal League has re-elected all of its officers for another term, except L. E. Holden of Cleveland, fourth vice president, for whom Prof. Edmund J. James of Chicago university was substituted, and Louis D. Branders of Boston, who was replaced as executive committeeman by Mayor George W. Ochs of Chattanooga. The names of Judge E. J. Blandin of Cleveland, D. J. Newman of Washington were added to the executive committee.

Charles Richardson of Philadelphia read a paper on "Municipal Ownership of Street Railways." A paper on "Public Control of Franchises," by Mayor Hazen S. Pingree of Detroit, was read: "The Relation of a Municipality to Quasi-Public Corporations Enjoying Municipal Franchises," by William Salter of Philadelphia, and another on "The Municipal Condition of Pittsburgh," by G. W. Guthrie, were read. Part of the session was devoted to papers relating to the municipal condition of the southern cities.

The session closed with a rather sensational address by Colonel Arthur D. Asher of Macon, Ga., which was received with enthusiastic approval by the conference.

GAS GENERATOR EXPLODED.

The Cause of the Cincinnati Disaster. Bodies Recovered.

CINCINNATI, May 8.—The workmen have continued their efforts with relays at the scene of the collapsed buildings on Walnut street. The gasoline engine and tank were found undamaged after the body of John Beers had been taken out. The explosion was evidently not due to the engine or its tank as previously announced. Evidence before the coroner shows that Engineer Beers secured candles with which to examine the engine. When he went into the cellar with a lighted candle the gas generator exploded. The generator was found in pieces.

The bodies of William Lowheide, barkeeper for Drach, C. F. Address, president of the Address-Meara Wall-paper company, and Mammie Kennedy, who lived with the Feys, have been recovered, the latter in a horrible condition. Eleven bodies have been recovered.

BANDITS RANG A GONG.

It Put a Banker and Posse on to Their Raid.

A Bank They Had Tried to Rob In a Little Illinois Town—One Robber Fell With Nineteen Shot In Him—The Others Escaped.

LACON, Ill., May 8.—The little town of Washburn, Woodford county, has been the scene of a raid by bank robbers, and as a result one of the desperadoes is lying in the county jail at Metamora severely shot in the neck and back. The cracksmen entered the town from the south, stealing a team and carriage of Arthur Hoover and tying it up on the southwest outskirts of the town.

The private banking house of Ireland & Son was entered by a back window, and the cracksmen at once began work to open the vault, but the moment they got inside the building the burglar alarm started a gong ringing in the house of the junior member of the firm, Charles, and he armed himself immediately and started out to raise a posse. He gathered a dozen men and surrounded the bank in time to hear the first explosion the robbers made on the vault door.

The explosion blew out the tumbler to the lock only, and while the men were making ready for another blast the posse made a noise and the three men dashed out the back door to be met by a volley of shot and bullets. They stood the first crowd off with a volley from their revolvers, but as they turned the corner of the bank another squad fired into them and one robber fell with 19 large shot in his back and neck. The other two men got away, although the trail of blood showed that one of them was wounded. The captured robber says his name is Bill Wilson. Further than this he will not speak.

TO CONSIDER THE CONTESTS.

Republican Chairman Carter Calls a National Committee Meeting.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Senator Carter, chairman of the Republican national committee, has given out the following: The members of the Republican national committee are requested to meet at the Southern hotel in the city of St. Louis, on Wednesday, the 10th of June, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of preparing the temporary roll of membership and designating temporary officers for the convention and for the transaction of such other business as may require the action of the committee. It appearing probable that an unusual number of contested cases will be presented to the committee for consideration in connection with the preparation of the temporary roll, it is deemed advisable to call special attention to the following clause in the call for the convention:

"All notices of contests must be filed with the secretary of the national committee, in writing, accompanied by printed statements of the grounds of the contest, which will be made public. Preference in the order of hearing and determining contests will be given by the committee in accordance with the dates of filing such notices and statements with the secretary." Prior to June 1 communications should be addressed to Secretary J. H. Manley in care of the Arlington Hotel, Washington, and thereafter in care of the Southern hotel, St. Louis.

HOLMES' DEATH STATEMENT.

He Declared His Innocence of Many Crimes—Died Bravely.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—One striking feature of Holmes' execution was the man's superb nerve to the last. Before his last prayer with the priests on the scaffold, previous to the death drop, he made this statement without a tremor: "Gentlemen, I have very few words to say. In fact, I would make no remarks at this time, except that by not speaking I would appear to acquiesce in my execution. I only wish to say that the extent of my wrongdoing in taking human life consisted in the death of two women, they having died at my hands as the result of criminal operations. I wish to state here, so there can be no chance of misunderstanding, that I am not guilty of taking the lives of any of the Pitzeitz family—the three children and Benjamin, the father, of whose death I was convicted and for which I am today to be hanged. That is all I have to say."

American Medical Association.

ATLANTA, May 8.—A fight is being made on Secretary Atkinson of the American Medical Association in favor of a younger man. The committee on nominations recommended Philadelphia as the next place of meeting, the time to be the first Tuesday in June. The recommendation was adopted.

Important Suit Compromised.

FOWLER, Ind., May 8.—The suit of Wilson vs. George, brought in Illinois and involving $2,000,000 worth of real estate in Indiana and Illinois, has been compromised here.

Legally Shot to Death.

ANTLETS, I. T., May 8.—Charles Homes, a full-blood Choctaw, has been legally shot at the Puchunataha court grounds, 30 miles west of here, for the murder of Charles Kiotubby, his stepson-in-law.

A Riding School Burned.

HEIDELBERG, May 8.—The University riding school has been burned. Four persons were suffocated and several others had narrow escapes. Twenty-seven horses perished.

VICTORY FOR WOMEN.

Granted Their Seats In M. E. General Conference.

COMPROMISE THAT IS RATHER ODD

A Constitutional Amendment Adopted to Be Voted on by the Annual Conference, Which Refers to "Lay" Delegates and Not "Laymen" Specifically.

CLEVELAND, May 8.—By a vote of 108 to 98 the Methodist general conference has decided that the four women delegates might retain their seats. This does not mean that the women have won a complete victory. The decision was reached simply as the result of a compromise, and with the understanding that it should not prejudice the claims of women in future or establish a precedent for future conferences to follow. But by the same vote by which the women were given seats, the conference also decided to submit to the annual conference a proposed amendment to the constitution providing that hereafter all general conference delegates shall be over 25 years of age, and that they shall have been members of the Methodist church for at least five years prior to their election. It also provides that no conference shall be held at less than one ministerial and one lay delegate.

The constitutional amendment is to be submitted to the annual conference and must receive a three-fourths vote to be adopted. The amendment is considered to mean that women as well as men will be eligible as lay delegates, the word "laymen" not being used. The members of the committee on eligibility who signed the compromise report were evidently of the opinion that the question could be settled by the general conference, as it was only one which involved the proper interpretation of the constitution. However, it was deemed better to let the annual conference decide the matter; hence the proposed change in the constitution was submitted.

The delegates were evidently pleased when the question was finally disposed of. Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, speaking of the contest in the committee on eligibility, said that the situation in the conference was critical. "At the close of seven hours' debate," he declared, "20 of the 31 members of our committee were as firmly convinced that women were eligible and 11 of us that they were ineligible, as we were before we began. We were all determined to stand on our ground, but you might have seen a few faint in prayer at any time during the session. We were all honest men. There was only one coward among us and we had only his word for his cowardice. All but four of our minority party signed this compromise report. We each yielded something."

At the meeting of conference committee on church extension, missions and Freedmen's Aid society Rev. Dr. Kybett moved that the constitution be changed so that they were prior to 1888, thus re-establishing the old order of independent conventions. This was agreed to.

The church extension committee appointed a sub-committee of three on assurance of church property. It will consider the proposition of forming a company within the church to insure its own property on the assessment plan.

Action of the utmost importance to the church was taken by the committee on missions. A communication was received from the north and south conferences of Germany asking the general conference to indicate whether a union of the Wesleyan Methodist church of South Germany and Austria and the Methodist Episcopal church of Germany can be arrived at, the Methodist Episcopal church to receive the Wesleyan ministers and membership. The latter is a branch of the Wesleyan church of England and is located in Austria and South Germany.

Austria is a very difficult field for the operation of Evangelical churches, being strongly Roman Catholic. These Wesleyan churches own $200,000 worth of property and have 29 ministers and 2,000 members. The Methodists in Germany feel that the existence of two church organizations practically the same in that part of Europe is not necessary and is even detrimental and the Wesleyans like the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church and are willing to place themselves under it.

Bishop Fitzgerald, who recently visited the churches in Germany stated to the committee that the proposed union should be authorized at once. It will take $12,000 per year to maintain these churches.

ARMED VESSELS FOR CUBA.
Macao Says He Will Recross the Trocha When Ready.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Three vessels, two heavily armed for fighting, will leave here with war munitions for Cuba. They are thought to be the Magnetics, Bermuda and Muriel.

A messenger direct from Cuba has arrived at the office of the Cuban junta in this city. He says: "General Maceo, with a well equipped army, has full and complete possession of Pinar del Rio province, and expects to hold his present position until the rainy season sets in.

"The recent victory claimed for the Spanish troops, under General Yncian, was a severe reverse for Spain.

"General Maceo sends word that he will recross the trocha when he gets ready to do so."

MCKINLEY IN A WALK.

The Ohio Presidential Steed Easily First In Indiana.

No Instructions In New Jersey Democratic Convention, but Both Russell and Pattison Are Favored—Other State Conventions Held.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8.—The Indiana Republican convention instructed its delegation to St. Louis to vote for William McKinley for president. There was scarcely any show made, by the opposition. The instructions went through with a rush which surprised even the most enthusiastic friends of McKinley. There was a cry of "nay" when the adoption of the platform containing the resolutions was moved, but the chairman's decision that the resolutions had been adopted was unchallenged and no division was called for. McKinley's name was cheered enthusiastically and often.

The rumor that ex-President Harrison would deliver an address before the convention which would make McKinley's instructions impossible proved to be absolutely devoid of foundation, the general not appearing before the resolutions were considered.

The platform, adopted without opposition, endorses Harrison's administration; reaffirms the Republican protection principles; declares for "sound money," favoring the use of both gold and silver at a parity and international bimetalism, but declaring against the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, and concludes with strong McKinley instructions.

There was a hot contest over the various state nominations. Private Secretary Tibbott sent word to the convention hall that General Harrison had decided not to address the convention. No explanation of the ex-president's refusal to appear was made, further than the statement that he had never fully decided to accept the invitation. He denied himself to interviewers.

The delegates-at-large chosen are: Ex-Secretary of the Navy Thompson, General Lew Wallace, Frank M. Milliken and Charles W. Fairbanks.

Colonel Thompson, temporary and permanent chairman, in his speech, declared himself for McKinley. James A. Mount of Montgomery county was nominated for governor on the seventh ballot.

RUSSELL OR PATTISON.

New Jersey Democrats Favor Either. Delegates Not Instructed.

TRENTON, May 8.—United States Senator Smith, chairman of the Democratic state committee, called the New Jersey Democratic convention to order, and in a brief speech predicted success for the party in the presidential election. He then introduced James J. Bergen, ex-speaker of the New Jersey house of representatives, as temporary chairman.

The permanent organization was effected with the Hon. J. W. Queen as chairman. In his speech on taking up the gavel Mr. Queen made individual reference to the different men named in connection with the Democratic presidential nomination. The mention of ex-Governor Russell of Massachusetts received great applause.

The following were chosen for delegates-at-large: United States Senator James Smith, Jr., Newark; Allen McDermott, Hudson; ex-United States Senator Rufus Blodgett, Monmouth, and ex-Judge Albert Tallman, Gloucester.

The platform declares for sound money, the repeal of legal tender issue laws, opposition is expressed to material alteration of the present tariff; liberal expenditures for coast defense and strengthening of the navy are favored; the administration of President Cleveland is commended, particularly on the finance, the currency, and foreign affairs, and sympathy with the insurgents of Cuba is expressed.

The fact that President Cleveland has not expressed himself as willing to accept the nomination, was the only thing that prevented an effort to instruct the delegates for his renomination. The Cleveland sentiment in the convention was strong and the effort might have been made. Among the delegates from the southern portion of the state the sentiment is largely for ex-Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania.

THE BOND INQUIRY A GO.

Pfeffer's Resolution Passed Finally In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—By the decisive vote of 51 to 6 the Senate has inaugurated an investigation, to be conducted by the senate committee on finance into the facts and circumstances connected with the sale of United States bonds by the secretary of the treasury during the last three years.

The six adverse votes were cast by Senators Caffery (La.), Faulkner (W. Va.), Gray (Del.), Hill (N. Y.), Mitchell (Wis.) and Palmer (Ills.), all Democrats.

A bicyclist ran over a small boy at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening. The man was going at a high rate of speed and it was an impossibility for the youngster to get out of the way. The bicyclist got by far the hardest tumble of the two, and was scratched up in an approved manner.

The concert last evening, given by the singers of the African Methodist Episcopal church, was very enjoyable, the performers acquitting themselves with great credit. It is to be regretted that the opera house was not filled, as the program was excellent. This church is certainly worthy of the assistance and patronage of the city.

William Davidson has on exhibition a handsome shaving mug, which he had made to present to W. H. Clearwater, the champion pool player of the world, during his stay in Pittsburgh. "Billy" and Clearwater are warm personal friends, and that gentleman is well known to a number of people, as he was given a taste of "goosepaste" here several years ago by the boys. It is expected that Clearwater will be in the city in a few weeks.

One by one the Quay supporters in the city are dropping off, but occasionally a man is found who wears a Quay button. An individual of this kind dropped into an uptown office this morning, and as everybody in the place were McKinleyites he had a hot time of it. The man actually believed Quay had a chance, and as soon as the McKinleyites saw this they quit talking for they were of the opinion that the man believed something that Quay didn't himself.

He was Not at Gettysburg. "People sometimes ask me," said an old soldier, "if I was at Gettysburg, and when I tell them the fact that I was not, do you know that I sort of imagine that some of them think that I couldn't have been very much of a soldier? I suppose it's natural enough too. It is perfectly natural that people should be most impressed by the greatest battles of the war, and natural enough to get an idea that the greater the battle the greater the danger and the greater the call for bravery, but as a matter of fact, a man can be killed just as dead in a little fight as in a big one."—New York Sun.

M. A. Clements has moved with his family to Ravenna.

The library committee of Trades council will meet tonight in the executive rooms.

Max Felix left today for Wheeling, where he will try to secure work at a pottery.

Burgess & Co. made a shipment of stilt to Hamilton, Ontario, Can., this morning.

The Literary society of the Second U. P. church will hold an entertainment on Tuesday evening.

J. L. Hudson, of Leeds, a member of the British Pharmaceutical association, will make his home here.

Residents are complaining about a pigsty near Spring Grove cemetery which emits a foul stench, and think it should be removed.

A few from this city went to Wellsville last night to hear a lecture given by Father Hauck, at the church of Immaculate Conception.

It is reported that the Empire sewer pipe works has more orders than they can fill, and are shipping 15 car loads of sewer pipe daily.

The remains of Patrick Delaney were brought to this city at noon today, from the infirmary, where he died on Wednesday evening.

George Preston, a decorator, and Tom Davidson, a printer, have secured positions at the Akron China works, and left today for that place.

The body of a sister of Isaac Knowles, who was buried at Clarkson some years ago, is being brought to Riverview cemetery today for interment.

John Boyd, a youngster, while playing on a pile of lumber on Walnut street yesterday afternoon had his leg badly injured by the fall of a number of boards.

Will Fleming, of Forest street, and one of the pony crew, had a finger mashed last night while making a coupling. The accident will cause him to remain off work for some time.

District Elder McGerry made the address at the conference of the Free Methodists at Bradshaw hall last night. Delegates from all over the district were in attendance at the session.

Three boys engaged in a brawl at the circus yesterday afternoon, and numerous blows were struck. Ex-Marshall Wyman happened along and separated the youngsters before much blood was shed.

Ted Woolscroft has purchased an English setter pup from a man in Youngstown. The animal is a valuable one, and will no doubt become a victim of the dog poisoner, as is usually the case.

The Bedford passed up last night, and put off a good cargo of freight at this place. The Virginia arrived from Cincinnati this morning. The towboat Sam Clark went up with a fleet of 16 empty barges.

The case of the NEWS REVIEW against A. R. Gould was continued in Squire Manley's court this morning for two weeks, on the plea of the defendant that he desired to secure an important witness from Pennsylvania.

The Ladies' auxiliary will entertain the employees of Knowles' pottery at the Young Men's Christian association rooms tonight. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion, and all those attending will spend an evening of genuine enjoyment.

A bicyclist ran over a small boy at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening. The man was going at a high rate of speed and it was an impossibility for the youngster to get out of the way. The bicyclist got by far the hardest tumble of the two, and was scratched up in an approved manner.

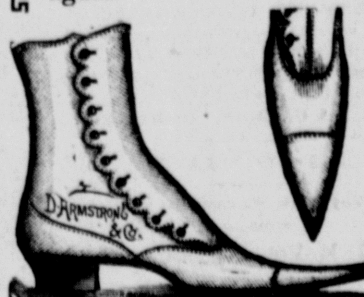

The concert last evening, given by the singers of the African Methodist Episcopal church, was very enjoyable, the performers acquitting themselves with great credit. It is to be regretted that the opera house was not filled, as the program was excellent. This church is certainly worthy of the assistance and patronage of the city.

William Davidson has on exhibition a handsome shaving mug, which he had made to present to W. H. Clearwater, the champion pool player of the world, during his stay in Pittsburgh. "Billy" and Clearwater are warm personal friends, and that gentleman is well known to a number of people, as he was given a taste of "goosepaste" here several years ago by the boys. It is expected that Clearwater will be in the city in a few weeks.

One by one the Quay supporters in the city are dropping off, but occasionally a man is found who wears a Quay button. An individual of this kind dropped into an uptown office this morning, and as everybody in the place were McKinleyites he had a hot time of it. The man actually believed Quay had a chance, and as soon as the McKinleyites saw this they quit talking for they were of the opinion that the man believed something that Quay didn't himself.

He was Not at Gettysburg.

"People sometimes ask me," said an old soldier, "if I was at Gettysburg, and when I tell them the fact that I was not, do you know that I sort of imagine that some of them think that I couldn't have been very much of a soldier? I suppose it's natural enough too. It is perfectly natural that people should be most impressed by the greatest battles of the war, and natural enough to get an idea that the greater the battle the greater the danger and the greater the call for bravery, but as a matter of fact, a man can be killed just as dead in a little fight as in a big one."—New York Sun.

PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY

Entered in Several Criminal Cases This Morning.

THE MEANOR-QUAY DAMAGE SUIT

Brought Before the Court and a Verdict Rendered For the Plaintiff For $134. The Coldsnow Case Settled Privately. Court News.

The following additional jurors were drawn from the wheel to appear on Tuesday morning to complete the petit jury panel: David Boyce, East Liverpool; C. R. Chaney, John Lyth and George B. Aten, Wellsville; William Crumrine, Salem; George Glosser, Fairfield township; R. I. Cowden and Clark Moore, Liverpool township.

The arraignment of a number of criminals was made in court this morning, and the following entered pleas of not guilty, giving bonds in the sum of $200 in each charge: John Kountz, Wellsville, selling to an habitual; Frank Rigott, East Liverpool, selling to an habitual (three charges); Pearl Evans, Leetonia, selling on Sunday; Charles Sewer, Wellsville, selling on Sunday (three charges); James N. House, Wellsville, selling to an habitual.

Mrs. Anna McDonald, of Wellsville entered a plea of guilty to a charge of selling liquor to an habitual and was fined $35 and costs. The case of John Manor versus John G. Quay, in which a judgment for $247 was rendered in Justice Manley's court of East Liverpool four years ago, was tried by a jury yesterday afternoon, which returned a verdict of $134. The action was brought on a breach of contract. On February 12th, 1892, Quay, as manager of the Specialty glass works, induced Manor to purchase five shares of stock, which he did, paying $500 for each share. Quay made an agreement with him, he claims, that if he invested in the stock he would secure for him the position of treasurer of the works at a salary of $1,200 per year. This he neglected to do after the deal had been made, and Manor soon found that his stock was worth much less than represented by Quay, and entered suit in an East Liverpool court for $300 damages, from where it was appealed by the defense. W. H. Spence represents the prosecution and Colonel Hill the defense.

The $2,000 damage case of Frank Coldsnow against the Pennsylvania company was privately settled before being called for trial. Last September while driving between New Franklin and Bayard, Coldsnow's buggy was struck by a train on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, which he claimed had given no warning of approach. He was seriously injured, his horse killed, and the buggy demolished.

Marriage licenses were issued to William E. Lamerton and Anna M. Kircher, of East Liverpool; Mathias Walters and Mary E. Minch, Franklin Square; Charles D. Paisley and Catharine Heitman, Wellsville; J. C. Kelly and Eliza Cunningham.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1,235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three 50 cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

To Cincinnati and Return.

A number of townspeople will take passage on the packet Virginia tomorrow night for Cincinnati and return. Berths for the trip were secured this morning.

Call at the J. T. Smith Lumber company and see the finest line of lumber, doors, sash, screen doors and mouldings you have ever examined.

HE SLEPT.

But What Could the Poor Boy Do Under the Circumstances.

A certain young tailor went to East Liverpool last evening to call on his best girl, and when near the lower side of the Diamond he was overtaken with sleep, and awakened only in time to see the young lady depart around the corner toward her home. This was too much for the young tailor to endure, and he turned madly on his heel and came back to Wellsville. It has been suggested that he go to Glasgow until he recovers from that tired feeling.—Wellsville Union.

Clearly a case of force of habit, but one would think a person coming from that sleepy village into life and activity could not lapse into the arms of Morpheus. Perhaps he was hypnotized by the entrancing beauty of the Liverpool maiden.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by Edwin Oppelt until noon, May 22, '96, for the erection and completion of the German Lutheran church building, corner of Third and Jackson streets, East Liverpool, O. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of A. W. Scott, architect, on and after Monday, May 11 1896. The committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the BUILDING COMMITTEE.

GOING TO LEAVE.

Doctor McVoy Will Locate in Michigan Soon.

Dr. E. C. McVoy is packing up his belongings preparatory to leaving the city. The genial young physician, in company with two eastern gentlemen of the profession, will open up a sanitarium and hospital for invalids in the state of Michigan, the exact point of location not yet being decided upon. Dr. McVoy came here from Liberty, Pa., and during his career, which has been a successful one in this community, he has made many friends, who will regret to learn of his departure, but wish him all success possible in this new enterprise. The doctor will leave the city the latter part of next week.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough, Chamberlain's Cough remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

SENT A CHECK

And Thus Avoided the Payment of a Fine.

John Rinehart sent the mayor a check for the payment of the vehicle tax yesterday before the summons for his arrest, which had been made, was served upon him, thus by a close shave avoiding the imposition of a fine for the violation of the vehicle ordinance. Delinquents who have not been apprehended by the officers continue to drop in at the mayor's office and bow to the inevitable by taking out a license.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tisler, a prominent merchant of the town, gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. He says she was well in 40 minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Avondale Again.

A reporter accidentally came across a resident of Avondale street this morning, and the gentleman said he was heartily in favor of having that thoroughfare paved, but was of the opinion that unless the work was started very soon there wouldn't be any street left there to pave, as it was fast washing away.

New early rose potatoes, Chattanooga strawberries, peas, beans, tomatoes, cucumbers, water cress, fancy apples and new house plants, vine and plant for vases and baskets, at T. B. Murphy & Son's.

PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY

Entered in Several Criminal Cases This Morning.

THE MEANOR-QUAY DAMAGE SUIT

Brought Before the Court and a Verdict Rendered for the Plaintiff For $134. The Coldsnow Case Settled Privately. Court News.

The following additional jurors were drawn from the wheel to appear on Tuesday morning to complete the petit jury panel: David Boyce, East Liverpool; C. R. Chaney, John Lyth and George B. Aten, Wellsville; William Crumrine, Salem; George Glosser, Fairfield township; R. I. Cowden and Clark Moore, Liverpool township.

The arraignment of a number of criminals was made in court this morning, and the following entered pleas of not guilty, giving bonds in the sum of $200 in each charge: John Kountz, Wellsville, selling to an habitual; Frank Rigott, East Liverpool, selling to an habitual (three charges); Pearl Evans, Leetonia, selling on Sunday; Charles Sewer, Wellsville, selling on Sunday (three charges); James N. House, Wellsville, selling to an habitual.

Mrs. Anna McDonald, of Wellsville entered a plea of guilty to a charge of selling liquor to an habitual and was fined $35 and costs.

The case of John Manor versus John G. Quay, in which a judgment for $247 was rendered in Justice Manley's court of East Liverpool four years ago, was tried by a jury yesterday afternoon, which returned a verdict of $134. The action was brought on a breach of contract. On February 12th, 1892, Quay, as manager of the Specialty glass works, induced Manor to purchase five shares of stock, which he did, paying $500 for each share. Quay made an agreement with him, he claims, that if he invested in the stock he would secure for him the position of treasurer of the works at a salary of $1,200 per year. This he neglected to do after the deal had been made, and Manor soon found that his stock was worth much less than represented by Quay, and entered suit in an East Liverpool court for $300 damages, from where it was appealed by the defense. W. H. Spence represents the prosecution and Colonel Hill the defense.

The $2,000 damage case of Frank Coldsnow against the Pennsylvania company was privately settled before being called for trial. Last September while driving between New Franklin and Bayard, Coldsnow's buggy was struck by a train on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, which he claimed had given no warning of approach. He was seriously injured, his horse killed, and the buggy demolished.

Marriage licenses were issued to William E. Lamerton and Anna M. Kircher, of East Liverpool; Mathias Walters and Mary E. Minch, Franklin Square; Charles D. Paisley and Catharine Heitman, Wellsville; J. C. Kelly and Eliza Cunningham.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1,235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three 50 cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

To Cincinnati and Return.

A number of townspeople will take passage on the packet Virginia tomorrow night for Cincinnati and return. Berths for the trip were secured this morning.

Call at the J. T. Smith Lumber company and see the finest line of lumber, doors, sash, screen doors and mouldings you have ever examined.

HE SLEPT.

But What Could the Poor Boy Do Under the Circumstances.

A certain young tailor went to East Liverpool last evening to call on his best girl, and when near the lower side of the Diamond he was overtaken with sleep, and awakened up only in time to see the young lady depart around the corner toward her home. This was too much for the young tailor to endure, and he turned madly on his heel and came back to Wellsville. It has been suggested that he go to Glasgow until he recovers from that tired feeling.—Wellsville Union.

Clearly a case of force of habit, but one would think a person coming from that sleepy village into life and activity could not lapse into the arms of Morpheus. Perhaps he was hypnotized by the entrancing beauty of the Liverpool maiden.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by Edwin Oppelt until noon, May 22, '96, for the erection and completion of the German Lutheran church building, corner of Third and Jackson streets, East Liverpool. O. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of A. W. Scott, architect, on and after Monday, May 11 1896. The committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the BUILDING COMMITTEE.

GOING TO LEAVE.

Doctor McVoy Will Locate in Michigan Soon.

Dr. E. C. McVoy is packing up his belongings preparatory to leaving the city. The genial young physician, in company with two eastern gentlemen of the profession, will open up a sanitarium and hospital for invalids in the state of Michigan, the exact point of location not yet being decided upon. Dr. McVoy came here from Liberty, Pa., and during his career, which has been a successful one in this community, he has made many friends, who will regret to learn of his departure, but wish him all success possible in this new enterprise. The doctor will leave the city the latter part of next week.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

SENT A CHECK

And Thus Avoided the Payment of a Fine.

John Rinehart sent the mayor a check for the payment of the vehicle tax yesterday before the summons for his arrest, which had been made, was served upon him, thus by a close shave avoiding the imposition of a fine for the violation of the vehicle ordinance. Delinquents who have not been apprehended by the officers continue to drop in at the mayor's office and bow to the inevitable by taking out a license.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tisler, a prominent merchant of the town, gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in 40 minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

EAST LIVERPOOL ICE CO.

B. H. HODGSON, PAPER HANGING

The time of my engagement with our church, as their city missionary having expired with the month of March, I am now at liberty to do your paper hanging in first-class style and at very reasonable figures. A card addressed to 200 Norton street, city, or a note left at HASSEY'S ICE CREAM PARLOR will receive my prompt attention and bring me to see you for terms and time.

Hassey's Parlors.

The ice cream is the best made, all flavors, large or small quantities. The confections are rich and pure. The drinks at the fountain are delicious, made from pure fruit juices.
